

The Fresnel

BLACK SWAMP PLAYERS, INC.

DECEMBER 2012

From the President
And the Board

Greetings Community Theater Lovers!!!

Our 2012/2013 season got off to a rousing start with the extremely well-received and well-attended "Enchanted April." This show also introduced you to some newcomers to BSP who I hope we will all see again in future productions.

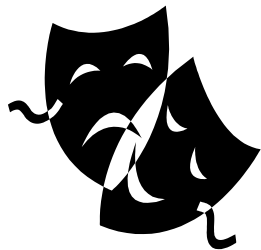

We are currently in production for our December show, "A Little Murder Never Hurt Anybody," directed by yours truly. For more information on this show, see the next page in the Fresnel. Production will also begin soon for our February musical, "How to Succeed in Business without Really Trying," this year directed by Kathy Barnes with choreography by Bob Marzola. We finish our season in April with Bob Hastings directing Ken Ludwig's "Moon Over Buffalo."

Our play-reading committee is also very hard at work reading the submissions of proposed shows for the 2013/2014 season, so stay tuned for the announcement of what I know will be another terrific season of BSP community theater magic. Speaking of magic, may the magic of the upcoming Christmas season surround you and yours in the days to come.

Thank you, and Happy Holidays!

Leroy Morgan, President, and the 2012/2013 Board of Directors.

BSP IS PROUD TO PRESENT

A Little Murder Never Hurt Anybody

By Ron Bernas

Sponsored by Bob and Pat Maurer

Directed by Leroy Morgan

From the Director...

Matthew and Julia Perry seemingly have it all. But Matthew wants more—to be rid of Julia so he can have more fun. So while Matthew vows to kill Julia before the year ends, Julia vows to remain alive, so let the games begin! Soon, anyone else acquainted with Julia is dying, and the Perry's dimwitted daughter wants to call off her wedding to steady Donald as there will be no presents. Add a clueless detective and a witty and scheming butler and you have a classic “who done it” comedy.

Starring Guy Zimmerman as Matthew Perry, Peggy Keyes as Julia Perry, Emily Waters as Bunny Perry (the dimwitted daughter), Anderson Lee as Donald Baxter (Bunny's fiance), Jason Wells-Jenson as Detective Plotnik, and Bill Perry as Buttram (the witty and scheming butler).

Hope to see you there!

Performances are at the First Methodist Church in Bowling Green on December 7-9 and 14-16.

Tickets are available at Grounds for Thought in downtown Bowling Green, or at the door for $12 adults and $10 seniors and students.

BSP is excited to present the Tony award winning Broadway classic

Written by Frank Loesser, Abe Burrows, Jack Weinstock, and Willie Gilbert
Directed by Kathy Barnes
Choreographed by Bob Marzola
And Musical Direction by Matt Zwyer

J. Pierpont Finch, a young but bright window-cleaner buys a book - "How To Succeed In Business" and following its advice joins the multi-national but poorly-connected "World-Wide Wicket Company." Starting from the mail-room he rises to Vice-President in Charge Of Advertising using sneaky and dubious ways so that the person above him gets either fired or moved to another section of the company. He also starts slowly falling in love with secretary Rosemary Pilkington. Meanwhile, the president of the WWWC, J.B. Biggley, tries to have an affair with drop-dead gorgeous bubble-head Hedy LaRue, but she becomes a weapon used both by Finch and Bud Frump, Biggley's brattish and annoying nephew who believe that he should get all the breaks and not Finch. Can Finch rise to the top? Of course...but getting there will be all the fun...for the cast, and for YOU!

Great music by the incomparable Frank Loesser! Directed by Kathy Barnes, Choreographed by Bob Marzola, and Musical Direction by Matt Zwyer!

A spectacular evening of entertainment guaranteed to please absolutely everyone.

More information to come...but make sure to mark your calendars, performances will be February 15-17 and 21-24 in 2013!
